To be place randomly on album:

For these souls passed, for all souls present, these songs are shades of life, love, darkness and light.

It is an honor to stand inside these expressions and make them mine for a moment.

Listen, feel and dig them with me.

Love and respect,

-Ann

Thank you thank you thank you to each and every one who has stood by me and believed in me through the making of this album and always.

May the force be with you!
